

Career Education,
Training, and Certification

Resiliency at Work 2.0 - RW2

Training and Certification for Careers in the Design, IT and Construction Industries

Learn More.
Earn More.
Less Time.

What is RW2?

- Technical training and certification
- Hands-on, Minds-on
- Flex Schedule
- Career, Internship Assistance
- Affordable
- Livable Wages
- Non-Profit Education

Resiliency at Work 2.0 has eight program options for training and certification that leads to careers in the technically skilled workforce.

In as little as 14 weeks, whether you're a novice or skilling up, you will be ready with the technical and soft skills desired by employers.

Year-round sessions in KCMO, KCK, and Online.

Who is eligible?

- Adult Learners
- High School – 11th, 12th
- Professionals Skilling Up
- Military/Veterans

Let's Go to Work!

Kansas City, Mo
Kansas City, Ks
ONLINE

www.rw2.education
816-875-0111

@RW2.0.ED

team@rw2.education

Training Sessions:

Spring & Fall: Mon. through Thurs.
9am – 12:45pm or 5:30pm – 9:15pm

School Year: Per school schedule

Summers: Mon. – Thurs., 9:30am – 2:15pm
or 5:30pm – 9:45pm

Current Training Areas and Career Titles:

AutoCAD, BIM/Revit - Tech 1 or Drafter Level 1
as an architectural drafter, structural drafter,
electrical drafter or mechanical drafter.

Other Training Areas: MicroStation, I/T,
Computer Programming, Cyber Security,
Construction Project Management

Certification:

RW2 provides certificates in fulfillment of each programs required contact hours, GPA, and if applicable, approval of portfolio items.
Participants will also have an updated resume
reflecting their training and skills.

Career Placement Assistance:

RW2 does NOT guarantee participant placement
but works with businesses and industries related to advanced manufacturing, architecture,
engineering, construction, technology and
workforce and staffing agencies.

Instruction:

- o RW2 staff have actual teaching know-how,
on-ground and online, in addition to real-world
STEM education and industry experience.
- o Differentiated instruction and assessment methods respect different learning styles and cultures deepening participant engagement.

RW2 Program Benefits:

Go to rw2.education to learn more and complete the
free program application

Participant Criteria:

- o 10th grade level in math and English
- o Basic computing skills – typing and use of mouse, Internet and email, some word processing
- o Pursuing or earned high school diploma, GED,
HiSET or higher credentials

Program Fees:

Program training fees vary starting at $3,400.
Payment plan options. See the free online application or catalog.

Scholarship Support (As Available):

- o Complete the free online application
- o Submit required documents
- o Receive a Training Acceptance Letter (TAL)
- o Attend RW2 Orientation
- o Meet attendance and grade expectations

Accommodations:

RW2 collaborates with participants who have documented disabilities. In order to coordinate support services that enable equal access to the education and training, please notify us at least one month in advance of starting training.

Program Catalog, Syllabi, Handbook:

<https://www.clec-education.com/RW2-resources/>

Training Locations:

Missouri and Kansas
Online/Virtual with Live Instructors

Let's Go to Work!

@RW2.0.ED

team@rw2.education

Kansas City, Mo
Kansas City, Ks
ONLINE

www.rw2.education
816-875-0111